SAWYER IMMIGRANTS TO AMERICA DURING SEVENTENTH CENTURY

It seems difficult to determine with any degree of certainty the origin and relationship of the various immigrant ancestors of the SAWYERS in America. There seems to have been a legend that three Sawyer brothers, Thomas, Edward, and William, emigrated from Lincolnshire, England, came on a ship with Capt. Parker, and settled in Mass. abt. 1636. MAINE GENEALOGY VOL. 3, Page 1444, gives the following information on the origin of the Sawyer family: "The ancestor of the Sawyers, John Sawyer, was a farmer in Lincolnshire, England, where he is supposed to have been a landholder also. He was father of three sons: William, Edward, and Thomas; who left England on a ship commanded by Captain Parker, and settled in Massachusetts about 1636. Edward, son of John Sawyer, brought over with him from England his wife, whose name was Mary Peasley, and their children, Mary, Henry, and James, and settled first in Ipswich and then in Rowley, Mass. No more is known of Edward or his wife."

Searching the vital records of New England, we find that there was a EDMUND SAWYER at Ipswich, Mass. as early as 1636. There was a Edward Sawyer and a Thomas Sawyer who bought adjoining lots at Rowley in 1640. Edward Sawyer remained in Rowley. His children include the following born in Rowley: Sarah, b. 19.10mo.1645, bur. 12.12mo.1645; John b. 17 7mo.1647, d. 1647/8; John b. 7.6mo.1648, m. Mary Parrat, d. 7 Apr 1722; and Ezekiel (Flower of Essex) killed in Bloodybrook, 18 Sept 1675. Will sworn to 31 Mar 1674 by Ezekiel Northend and Thomas Tenny mentions wife (unnamed), eldest son John, and son Ezekiel. (Essex Probate File 24838) Widow Mary Sawyer and her son John agreed 6 Feb 1676-7, upon a division of the property of Edward Sawyer, deceased. (Essex Deeds 41ps:83)

Some authorities suggest that Edmund of Ipswich 1636, Edward of Rowley 1640, and Edward son of John of Lincolnshire, Eng. are the same person. Another thought which is suggested by Amory Carter is that Edmund of Ipswich 1636 is the same person who was at York (Maine) in 1661, and not Edward Sawyer of Rowley. It is quite probable also that Edward father of John of Rowley and Edward son of John of Lincolnshire are not the same person. This is especially apparent if we consider James son of Edward of Lincolnshire to be the James of Gloucester as is suggested by the Maine Genealogy. For John to have been the oldest son of Edward of Rowley in 1674, sons Henry and James (if they were brothers to John) would have had to be dead where-as James (of Gloucester) lived untill 1703.

In any case EDWARD SAWYER of ROWLEY is thru his son John the immigrant ancestor of most of the family of Sawyers of Rowley.

THOMAS SAWYER, immigrant ancestor of probably the largest group of Sawyers in America, is said to be the son of John Sawyer of Lincolnshire, England. He is said to have come to Rowley about 1636. Vital records show that he bought received a lot at Rowley about 1640 next to his (brother?) Edward. He took up residence at Lancaster, Mass. 1647 and became one of its first permanent residents. Thomas became the ancestor of nearly all the early Sawyer families West of Middlesex County, Mass.

WILLIAM SAWYER, was first at Salem 1643, later at Wenham, and settled in Newbury by 1645. William may or may not be the son of John of Lincolnshire. I can find no definite proof that he is. William's descendants are located mainly in Essex, Suffolk, and Norfolk, Counties Mass. together with those of Edward Sawyer.

JAMES SAWYER of GLOUCESTER. Maine Genealogy has the following comment on James Sawyer of Gloucester: "James, youngest son of Edward and Mary (Peasley) was born in England and came to Mass. with his parents. He was a weaver and settled in Gloucester where he died May 31, 1703. One authority says he is doubtless the son of Edward of Ipswich while others having searched the records of Ipswich were unable to verify this". William Sawyer is also given by some authorities as the father of James Sawyer of Gloucester, though I can find no legal proof to substantiate this. James seems to be the ancestor of many of the Sawyers in Essex, County Mass. and most of the Sawyer family in Maine.

There was a MARY SAWYER of Newbury who married first 7 Nov 1648, William Mitchell, and second 8 Dec 1658, Robert Savory of Newbury. She may have been a sister to William of Newbury (Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury)

The Will of Joseph Peasley 1660, seems to show that his daughters Elizabeth and Sarah were then single while Jane and Mary had rec'd their portion and were married, as he mentions his granddaughter Sarah Sawyer and his daughter Jane who married John Davis in 1646. It seems probable that Mary married a Sawyer unless there was a mother daughter who was dead 1660 who left a daughter Sarah Sawyer. (Hist. Rowley)

Savage list additional Immigrant Sawyers⁶ which we do not have additional records, see Savage Gen. Dictionary Vol. 4: Edmund Sawyer of Ipswich 1636, removed to York #. Me. befor 1661; # James Sawyer from Northbourne Co. Kent, Eng. Came 1635 in Hercules from Sandwich but we know not where he set down; Job Sawyer (Sayer) at Southampton L.I. 1673 with Daniel and Francis (there was at least one Job there in 1635 and the others may have been his brothers and sisters); John Sawyer of Falmouth sold in 1655 to Isaac Walker of Boston, that Island called Long Island in Casco Bay; Richard Sawyer died at Hartford Conn. 1648, not md. employed by John Cullick; Robert Sawyer of Hampton 1640; Thomas Sawyer of Lynn 1635, one of the purchasers of Southampton L.I. in 1640.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The history of the United States of America is a story of growth and development. It begins with the first settlers who came to the continent in search of a new home. These settlers found a land of vast resources and potential. They worked hard to build a life for themselves and their families. Over time, the colonies grew and became more independent. They developed their own laws and customs. They fought for their rights and freedoms. In 1776, they declared their independence from Great Britain. This was the beginning of the United States of America. The new nation faced many challenges. It had to build a government and a system of laws. It had to defend itself against foreign powers. It had to unite the different states and peoples. Despite these challenges, the United States emerged as a powerful and free nation. It has since played a leading role in the world. It has helped to bring peace and freedom to many other countries. It has been a source of inspiration and hope for people everywhere. The history of the United States is a story of courage and determination. It is a story of a people who have never given up on their dreams and ideals. It is a story that continues to inspire and guide us today.

THOMAS SAWYER FAMILY - FROM HISTORY OF BERLIN, MASS. p. 471.

The Sawyers of Berlin are descendents of Thomas Sawyer, b. in England in 1616, who came from Rowley, Mass., and settled in Lancaster in 1647; he was a blacksmith; his wife was Mary, the dau. of John Prescott, the head man of early Lancaster; his homestead was on the present grounds of the Seventh Day Adventist, between South Lancaster and Clinton. He d. Sept. 12, 1706, at about 90 yrs., leaving ten children; the oldest of these. Thomas Jr., b. 1648, was of the lineage of the Berlin Sawyers, and was the one captured by the Indians in 1705. The story of his captivity has given him a popular fame above all college graduates; nothing gave notoriety like exploits with the Indians, nor can the Lancaster experiences be forgotten in any age. Sawyer's is romantic, though oft repeated. This Indian raid and capture was during Queen Ann's war; was nearly thirty years after the Lancaster massacre (so called) in King Phillips war in 1676. The Indians were from Canada; were the allies of the French in the contest involving the French and English colonies in America; the event occurred on the 16th of Oct. 1705. This Thomas Sawyer, Jr., while at work in his saw-mill, at present "Dear's Horn", together with his s., Elias, and John Bigelow of Marlboro, was captured by the Indians and taken to Canada. A younger bro. of Elias escaped through a window. Sawyer was a millwright and Bigelow a carpenter. Sawyer saw their opportunity. For their liberty he proposed to the French governor to appropriate the water of the Chambly river to lumber making. The governor saw his opportunity to, but the Indians did not see it in the same light. They saw in the vigor of their chief captive the pluck of a good subject for their devilish torture. The narrative has it that he was finally tied to a stake; the French Catholic priests had gained much influence over the Indians. A friar was equal to the occasion; brandishing a key in mid-air he threatened "to unlock purgatory and thrust them into eternal fires if they did not release their prisoner". Superstition had its uses; they let him go; the mill was built, the first in all Canada; Thomas Sawyer and Bigelow came home; Elias was detained a year longer to run the mill and instruct others in the art of sawing. No wonder the Sawyers have had saw-mill "on the brain". If you can find a saw-mill in all this region not started or run by a Sawyer, publish it. Some Sawyer, doubtless was responsible for this old saw:

Sawyer says of all the saws

He ever saw saw,

He never saw a saw saw,

As Sawyer's saw saws.

-SAWYER INHERITANCE-

This story entitled "Under Jackson's Cloak or The Sawyer's Inheritance" by Jane Sawyer (Mrs. Harry Delbert Smart of Bangor, Me), is found in book, "The Trail of the Maine Pioneer", published by Maine Writers Research Club. The story of the Sawyer inheritance was told Mrs. Smart by her great aunt, Mrs. Alvin Lenfest.

"The Sawyers were of English family holding a ducky, of which the strawberry leaves in the crest is an emblem. Of these Sawyers an Edmund Sawyer died, leaving no wife, children or will, and a large fortune was never administered upon (I find this later a fact from data in our Bangor library). A grant of Cape Elizabeth to a Sawyer with papers proving titles, genealogy, etc., was supposed to be in grandma's cabinet. Grandma had been so sure that William Burlingham was to be a scholar and bring about the great desire of her life that the loss of her sons fortune made for delight, bringing the necessity of this nearer. The shock of finding that William had decided against school and therefore the probability that the claim to the inheritance never would be proved, caused her despair culminating in the destruction of the papers."

In the story Grandma said to William " It is a grant heritage waiting across the water - kings and princes showered favours upon the Sawyers, here are their tokens, The grant of Cape Elizabeth, The records of gold in the Bank of England, and even the ducal coronet, Our Almira must have her own. The papers lie in this cabinet, William!"

THE SAWYER FAMILY OF ELLIOTSVILLE, PLANTATION, ~~#####~~
PISCATAQUIS COUNTY, MAINE.

While an attempt has been made by the author to gather as much information as possible on all branches of the "JAMES SAWYER OF GLOUCESTER" family, most of the available information on the later families has been on the Sawyers of Elliotville Me. and their descendents. Thus this first edition of this genealogy is focused mainly on the Sawyers of Elliotville and their kinfolk the Drakes.

The following extract from the History Of Piscataquis County, by Loring- Pub. Hoyt, Fogg & Donham, 1880, Portland, Me., gives us an insight on the first settlers of Elliotville, including Joseph Sawyer progenitor of the Sawyers of Elliotville, and John Drake progenitor of one branch of the Drakes.

"ELLIOTSVILLE.

Elliotville has faded from the list of towns in this county, but it once had a place in it. Though now in the twilight of its brighter days, it has a history. As primarily run out by John ~~#####~~ Boardman, it was Number Eight, Nineth Range. It has two lofty mountains within its limits- Boarstone and Beaked Mountains,- while Ship Pond lies in its southeastern part, and vents its surplus waters into Sebec Lake. The Wilson Stream crosses the southwest~~#####~~ corner of it, and therein ~~#####~~ receives the Little Wilson; these united to make very good mill privileges. But limited portions of its soil are good for agriculture; other portions has a fair amount of pine and spruce timber; and other large portions are waste and useless.

Grants and Proprietors. A strip on the west side, nearly a mile wide was included in the grant to the Massachusetts Medical Society, to equal the 3,000 acres in Number Nine of that township, sold to William C. Whitney.

The Vaughan tract was the next granted. In February, 1812, the State of Massachusetts granted to the heirs of the late William Vaughan, one full half township of wild land, for services which he had rendered to the State. A person of this name resided in Portsmouth, N.H. who took an active part in projecting and pushing forward the expedition to Louisburg, in 1745, and this may be the individual. These heirs selected the northern part of this township, on the east of the Medical tract, and in 1814, 11,520 acres were conveyed to them by the State authorities, including the usual reserves for public uses.

By the Saco Free Bridge Co., Capt. Ichabod Jordan was appointed to select and locate four thousand acres, to make up the deficiency, and he took that amount on the south ~~#####~~ of the Vaughan tract. Two other small parcels in the south part, on either side of Ship Pond, remained, which Elliot G. Vaughan Esq. and a Mr. Watson eventually purchased. The Vaughan heirs early sold an undivided part, amounting to 4, 333 acres, to C.H. Vaughan, to raise money to pay the expense of obtaining and locating the grant.

This reduced the amount held in common, to about seven thousand acres. Some of the owners sold out their shares, and eventually Elliot G. Vaughan Esq. became the chief owner.

The First Settlers. Capt. Jordan had an opening felled on the Free Bridge part, in 1824, and Joseph and Eben Sawyer from Buxton also made beginnings. Joseph Sawyer was the first to move his family in, and fifty acres of land were given to his son Joseph in consideration thereof. In 1826, S.G. Bodfish from Norridgewock moved on to the lot which Capt. Jordan cleared. In 1828, John Drake and E. Briggs from Buckfield, came in, also two Messrs. Burnell from Portland, relatives of the Vaughan family. E.G. Vaughan Esq. took quite an interest in settling the township. He early erected a saw-mill, and started a clapboard machine on the Wilson Stream, and eventually settled his family there. He worked up a large amount of timber in these, while clap boards cut were also driven out on the Ship Pond and Wilson Streams. Mr. Vaughans Mills and house were not upon the Vaughan tract but nearer the southern part of the township.

E.T. Bridge Esq. built a grist- mill on the Wilson, above Vaughans mill on the eastern side of the Medical tract.

Mr. Vaughna, hoping to promote the sale of his land, prematurely procured the incorporation of the town in 1835 and named it Elliottsville, perpetuating his his own name. They were troubled to collect the non-resident taxes. A large amount of non-resident land was advertised and sold at auction, and this discouraged, rather than encouraged, settlement. A country road was located and opened to Monson, school ~~districts~~ districts were established, a school fund secured by sale of reserved lands, and the settlement promised well, except that it was small and the nonresident taxes were not paid willingly.

After the annexation of the eastern part of Wilson, to Elliottsville, the depletion of its inhabitants went on. After the timber was cut off, the wild land would not sell, for enough ~~to pay~~ even to pay the taxes. E.G. Vaughan and many others moved away and in 1858, the inhabitants petitioned for a repeal of the act of incorporation. This was granted, and it has not been organized into a plantation since. (1880) Vaughans mill has gone to decay, but the Sawyer's built a shingle mill upon the same dam, which is still pperating (1880)

In 1860 population was 59; in 1870 it was 42; in 1880 it is still less."

JAMES SAWYER OF GLOUCESTER, MASS.

(abt. 1632-1703)

SOME OF HIS DESCENDENTS

Compiled by Fred E. Sawyer

1. JAMES¹ SAWYER of Gloucester, Mass., was born about 1632, possibly at Lincolnshire, England; died at Gloucester, Mass. 31 May 1703. He probably m. (1) Martha (maiden name not known) and (2) SARAH BRAY, b. 1652, d. 24 Apr. 1727 at Gloucester, daughter of Thomas Bray and Mary (Wilson) of Gloucester.

We find the following account of James Sawyer in the MAINE GENEALOGY Vol. 4: "James Sawyer, youngest child of Edward and Mary (Peasley) was born in England and came to Mass. with his parents. He was a weaver and settled in Gloucester where he died May 31, 1703. One authority says that he is doubtless the son of Edward of Ipswich while another having searched the records of Ipswich was unable to verify this. Beginning with the first appearance of James in Gloucester, his identity with the generations succeeding as herein mentioned, does not seem to admit of doubt. About a week before his death James made a Will which gives the names of his children then living. The diary of a clergyman tells of meetings held at the house of James, also of his being present at the death of a daughter there. James Sawyer married Sarah Bray of Gloucester, born 1651, died 24 April 1727, probably a second wife. His children named in the will were Thomas, John, Nathaniel Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Mary, Sarah, and James."

Continuing with the account of the Sawyer family in the MAINE GEN. Vol. 4 we find the account of Edward Sawyer the father of James, and John Sawyer his grandfather: "John Sawyer was a farmer in Lincolnshire England, where he is supposed to have been a landholder also. He was the father of three sons: Edward, William, and Thomas; who left England on a ship commanded by Capt. Parker, and settled in Mass. about 1636. Edward Sawyer, son of John, brought over with him from England his wife, whose maiden name was Mary (Peasley), and their children, Mary, Henry, and James, and settled first in Ipswich and then in Rowley, Mass. No more is known of Edward or his wife."

I have tried to check the foregoing statements from the MAINE GEN. Vol. 4, on the parentage of James Sawyer of Gloucester, from the vital records but have found little to prove the claim. It seems evident from the records of Edward Sawyer of Rowley, who is the ancestor of the Rowley Sawyers thru his son John, that James of Gloucester is not his son. At least from the will of Edward of Rowley, 1674, mentions only oldest son John (b. 1648), son Ezekiel, and wife (unnamed). (Widow of Edward Sawyer later named in deed as Mary Sawyer). If the Edward Sawyer of Ipswich (Edmund 1636) is not the same person as Edward Sawyer of Rowley then this Edward Sawyer of Ipswich may have been the father of James of Gloucester. Possible also that there were two Edward Sawyers of Rowley.

A few authorities have suggested that James may be the son of William of Newbury, but I can find no vital records to substantiate this either.

James Sawyer was a selectman in Gloucester in 1696. He received grants of land; six acres on the west side of the Annisquam river in 1688, and in 1690 he bought additional land in that section of the town and established his residence there. His wife outlived him many years and was living with her son Abraham on the family homestead, 1726. The estate was divided in 1752.

A paper 1669 to Gloucester 1677

Children, first three probably born in Ipswich, the others recorded at Gloucester, include the following:

- i. MARY², b. 1672, d. 18 Dec 1717, Gloucester, age 45 years; m. in Gloucester, WILLIAM RING, 5 Dec 1699, ~~d. Gloucester, 18 Dec. 1717.~~
 Children (surname Ring):
 1. John, b. 23 May 1703, Gloucester.
 2. William b. 9 June 1713, Gloucester.
- (2)ii. THOMAS, b. abt 1674.
- (3)iii. JOHN, b. 1676.
- (4)iv. NATHANIEL, b. 29 Dec 1677.
- v. ABRAHAM, b. 5 Nov 1680, d. 1751 at Gloucester unmarried. Lived with mother on homestead for many years.
- vi. SARAH, b. 19 June 1683, d. ~~probably at Falmouth~~ ^{at Gloucester} 26 Aug 1724; m. at Gloucester, JOHN MARINER.

22. JABEZ⁴ SAWYER (Joseph³, John², James¹), of Buxton, Maine, was born at Cape Elizabeth (second parish Falmouth), 31 Dec. 1743, died at Buxton, 19 April 1816. He married at Buxton, 8 March 1765, to MARY PENNELL, who is said to be a descendent of Clement Pennell of the Isle of Jersey. Mary Pennell is also the granddaughter of Sarah Sawyer the sister of Judge Joseph Sawyer. She died 10 March 1814 at Buxton. Jabez Sawyer with his brother John settled first in the Blue Hill district, at or near the place now called Sedgwick, where they resided for several years on adjoining farms. When the Indians became troublesome in that district they returned to Cape Elizabeth, and when the times became more peaceful they went to Narragansett #1, now Buxton, and cleared adjoining farms. Here they lived and died. (Between Old Corner and Duck Pond)

The first record that we can find of Jabez in Narragansett #1, now Buxton, is his marriage "Jabesh Sawyer of Falmo' and Mary Pennell of Narragansett #1, married by Rev. Paul Coffin, 8 March 1765", at the Buxton lower corner church. Also in the records of the Buxton Lower Corner Church are the christenings (baptisms) of several of Jabez children. The older children were probably born at Blue Hill or at Cape Elizabeth, as no record can be found of their birth at Buxton.

The census record of 1790 list for Jabez Sawyer of Buxton, 4 males 16 years of age and over, 3 males under 16, and 5 females. In the records of Buxton, about 1800 Jabez residence is described as follows: Range GN^o 1 of 2^o Div., 896 sq. ft. one story high, 6 windows, sitting totaling 32 sq ft., wood, one dwelling, value $200.00

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to raise the necessary funds to meet its obligations. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the government has been unable to attract foreign investment and has been forced to rely on domestic sources. This has led to a severe shortage of funds, which has in turn led to a default on its foreign debt. The second factor is the fact that the government has been unable to implement the reforms that were promised to the international community. This has led to a loss of confidence in the government and has made it difficult to attract investment. The third factor is the fact that the government has been unable to control inflation. This has led to a sharp increase in the price level, which has in turn led to a decrease in the value of the currency. This has made it even more difficult for the government to raise the necessary funds to meet its obligations.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and interesting in the history of science. They settled on the coast near where Waldport now stands. There were only three white families in the settlement. Laura was 13 years old befor she knew that she was not the child of the Tobys. Since they had not adopted her she resumed the name of Sawyer. Later she visited her twin sister in Wisconsin, and her ~~kinfolk~~ kinfolk in Maine.

Laura Jane Ashcraft now lives at Woodland, Washington, on the banks of the ~~river~~ Lewis river where her first husband operated a ferry the last seven years befor his death. 51. PHINEAS⁶ HANSON SAWYER, (Joseph⁵, Jabez⁴, Joseph³, John², James¹), of Elliotville, Me., and Jackson, Minn., was born, 7 Feb. 1828 at Buxton, died at Jackson, Minn., 28 Sept. 1907; married 22 March 1851, ADELINA WALKER DRAKE, b. 28 June 1828, probably at Paris Me., d. Jackson, Minn. 28 Sept. 1907, dau. Stephen Drake and Martha Ann Hicks. Little is known of Phineas younger life but he must have been just an infant when the family moved to Elliotville.

Phineas was a private in Capt. I.W. Cases Company, 22 Regiment of Maine Infantry, in the Civil War. He ~~enrolled~~ enrolled the 10 day Sept. 1862, and received his discharge 14 day of August 1863 at Bangor Me.

Five children were born to Phineas and Adeline at Elliotville. About the year 1865 the family moved to Monson where their last child was born. During the spring of 1871 the family started Westward. They went by stage to Dexter, which was the nearest railroad, where they stayed a short time with Adelines sister. From there they traveled by train, through Canada to Chicago and on to Mankato, Minn. The train was wrecked a short way out of Chicago causing some delay, At Mankato the family bought a team and wagon and went on to Mountain Lake in Cottonwood County, Minn. where they homesteaded. The first crop of grain was harvested with a cradle. In 1875 the family sold their homestead to a "Russian" and moved to Jackson County, Minn, where they purchased a farm, which for years was known as the Sawyer farm of Middleton township. Phineas was engaged mostly in the cattle and stock business.

Phineas was killed by an accident while harrowing, the day before he had planned to visit his sons in Nebraska.

The log house which Phineas and his family lived in in Elliotville was still standing in 1925, and was in a good state of preservation.

1. GEORGE HANSON, b. 14 July 1852, Elliotsville, Me., d. 1 Jan. 1937, at Jackson, Minn.; m. (1) 26 Oct. 1879, at Jackson, Minn., Frances (Fannie) E. Russell, b. 5 Feb. 1859, Dubuque Co. Iowa, d. 8 Dec. 1919, at Jackson, dau. of Thomas Russell and Elizabeth White; m. (2) 1 June 1924, at Winnipeg, Canada, Mrs. Mary Brooks. George made his home in Jackson County Minn., the following obituary gives an excellent account of his life:

" The Jackson community is again called upon to mourn the passing of another of the sturdy pioneers who lent material assistance in building Jackson County in its present rich and fertile settlement so much enjoyed by the present day residents, in the death of George H. Sawyer who passed away at the Sawyer family residence, on South Street, last Thursday.

Mr. Sawyer virtually grew up with Jackson county and took a prominent part in its development from a near wilderness to its present prominence in the northwest. He was a gentleman of high character and sterling honesty, in fact the word of Mr. Sawyer was as good as his a gold bond. He was also progressive and during his busy years in the Jackson community he did many things that were worthwhile. His development of what is now known as Sawyer's addition to Jackson, one of the important residential sections of our city is a monument to his enterprize.

Not only was Mr. Sawyer progressive in building up of Jackson community, but he also gave freely of his time and energy to the public, serving as a member of the city council and during his residence on the farm in Middletown township he was often called upon to serve in positions of trust such as a member of the township board and member of the board of education. For many years Mr. Sawyer conducted a wood and coal business in Jackson in company with the late V.W. Avery and performed other functions that helped Jackson to a higher business importance.

In matters of the church he was a liberal minded man and gave freely to assist in improving a higher standard of citizenship, in fact Mr. Sawyer could be relied upon to do just a little more than his share in any public enterprise that was suggested to make Jackson a better place in which all might live and enjoy, and his passing is being genuinely mourned by all who throughout the long years have been privileged to enjoy his pleasant and unfaltering friendship. He was also prominent in several fraternal societies of our city where his judgement was always highly respected.

Indeed, the many friends of Mr. Sawyer in Jackson will miss his pleasing and friendly greetings in the years to come and will heartily attest to the fact that the world has been made better and brighter because of his living so many useful years of service to the community.

George Hanson Sawyer was born in Elliotsville, Piscataquis, county, Maine, July 14, 1852, a son of the late Phineas and Adeline Drake Sawyer, and at the age of eighteen years accompanied his parents to Minnesota, the Sawyers homesteading in Cottonwood county. In 1875 the Sawyer family came to Jackson county and soon purchased the farm which for years has been known as the Sawyer farm of Middletown township, where Mr. Sawyer grew to manhood.

Later Mr. Sawyer purchased a farm of his own in Middletown township and on October 26, 1879, was united in marriage to Miss Frances E. Russell, a daughter of one of the early day pioneer families of the Petersburg township community. The marriage was blessed by the birth of seven children, Ethel (Mrs. T.L. McCullough) of Riverside Calif.; Frank A. Sawyer of Jackson; Willie, deceased in infancy; Susie (Mrs. S.A. Finnegan) of Owatonna; Pearl (Mrs. R.B. Hunt) of Middletown township; Earl, a twin of Pearl died in infancy; Howard died while in the service of his country during the late World War.

Mr. Sawyer is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. J. D. Baughman of Jackson; Charles of Bloomfield, Nebraska; Albert of Rupert, Idaho; Mrs. A. H. Baughman of Jackson; Fred D. of Whittier, Calif.. Also ten grandchildren and numerous admiring friends who had esteemed him through many years of acquaintance.

June 1, 1924, at Winnipeg, Canada Mr. Sawyer was united in marriage to Mrs. Mary Brooks, who now survives him and has, since his long decline, been his constant companion, nursing him most tenderly during his long illness.

Funeral services were held from the home and the Methodist church, Monday afternoon and were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Leon W. Kern, who paid a much deserved tribute to the memory of the deceased. Many floral tributes were in evidence and a quartet composed of Messrs. Kenneth, William and Edwill Muir and Frank Mundell, sang two numbers, favorites of Mr. Sawyer. Burial was held in Riverside cemetery.

 Albert immigrated to Minn. from Maine with his parents and about the year 1882 settled with his brother Charles in Holt county, Nebr. where they operated a cattle business. About 1890-2 they bought adjoining farms some 14 miles N.W. of Bloomfield Knox Co., Nebr.

The Sawyers were very popular among members of the community and were loved by all who knew them. They were active workers in the Addison Congregational Church at Bloomfield. Three of their children were born at their home near Bloomfield, one of these died in infancy. Due to illness the Sawyers sold their ranch at Bloomfield and moved to Rupert, Idaho, in the spring of 1914. There they purchased a small farm one mile east of Rupert, build a new house and made it their home for many years. They became active members of the Methodist Episcopal church at Rupert, and were prominent members of the community.

Elsie died 23 Nov. 1920 at the Twin Falls County Hospital following an appendectomy. She is buried at Rupert cemetery 26 Nov. 1920.

Albert married (2), 11 July 1928, at Rupert, Jennie L. Fimpel b. 1 Jan 1888, Cedar County, Nebr., dau. Farris Fimpel and Martha Tinker. Jennie was a friend of the family when they lived at Bloomfield. Albert and Jennie adopted a small girl, Mary Ann Williams b. 9 Sept. 1925, during the year 1929. Also living with the family was John Bohlen who was adopted to Jennie before her marriage. John stayed with the family until he attained manhood and was a great help to Albert. THE DRAKE FAMILY

DESCENDENTS OF THOMAS DRAKE OF WEYMOUTH, MASS.

Note: This section of this genealogy is devoted to the descendants of Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth, Mass. immigrant thru his great-great grandson John⁵ Drake m. Molly Cole, of Bridgewater, Mass. and Buckfield, Maine, whose descendants settled mainly in or near Elliotsville, Plantation in Piscataquis, County Maine, and some of whom intermarried with the Sawyers, descendants of James Sawyer of Gloucester. We have tried to include as many descendants of John Drake m. Molly Cole as could be found. Several branches of the family apparently have been lost to us at least for the present. If any one has any additional information on any branches of the family, please advise the author so that they can be included in succeeding revisions of this genealogy.

D1. THOMAS¹ DRAKE, the immigrant ancestor of our Drake family is said to have been born at Colyton, Devon County, England, about 1635 for he ~~was~~ is supposed that he is the same person who was baptized at the St. Andrews Church at Colyton, 13 Sept. 1635, the son of William Drake and Margaret Westover (or Westofer), the youngest of eight children. The above is the testimony given by Louis Stoughton Drake in his book The Drake Family in England and America, printed in 1896, which has been considered the "Authority" on this family for a number of years. However, more recently some genealogist have taken issue with Louis Stoughton Drake, and attempt to prove the above connection between the English and American Drakes is in error. The most recent of these is the article in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register Vol. XCVIII., July 1944, by Edward Howard Drake of Lincoln, Nebr.

"THE PARENTAGE OF THOMAS DRAKE OF WEYMOUTH, MASS.- The following comments deal with Louis Stoughton Drake's The Drake Family in England and America (1896), correcting one obvious error, ~~the~~ and questioning the parentage of Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth by the author of that book.

Thomas¹ Drake ~~of Weymouth~~ probably was not a son of William Drake of Yarbury, co. Devon, England (p.xvi,1). No documentary proof was offered by Mr. Drake in support of the parentage ascribed to Thomas the emigrant.

The Colyton, co. Devon, Parish register records the baptism of Thomas, son of William Drake, Sept. 13, 1635. Yet the Suffolk Co., Mass. Court file no. 1689, dated Mar. 3, 1677/78, begins thus: "Thomas Drake aged 49 yeares" .

Vivian's Visitations of the County of Devon, pp. 297-98, shows that William Drake and Margaret Westofer were married on, or soon after Nov. 1620. Their first child, John, was baptized Mar. 24, 1621/22. The baptism of the other eight children (Vivian omitted a daughter Jane) occurred in regular sequence: Dorthy, Mar. 26, 1625; Eleanor Dec. 15, 1625; Joane, June 11, 1628; William, Dec. 22, 1629; Jane Feb. 13, 1630/31; Elizabeth, Dec. 10, 1632; Endimion, June 25, 1634, and Thomas, Sept. 13, 1635.

Therefore it is more than likely that Thomas, son of William Drake of Yardbury, was baptized within a year after his birth. He could hardly have been identical then, with the Thomas Drake of Weymouth, Mass., who was born about 1623/9, if the position in the Suffolk County Court files (no. 1639) is correct as to his age.

The supposed connection between Thomas Drake of Weymouth and the Yardbury, England family was based on the baptismal records in Colyton, co. Devon, of a Thomas Drake with sisters Elizabeth and Joane, and the coincidence of "finding" three Drakes thus named in New England at a later date.

It is true that Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth had a sister Elizabeth who married Ezekiel Hamlin of Boston. (Report of the Record Commissioners, Boston Births, Baptisms, Marriages, and Deaths, 1630-1699, p. 48) Proof of relationship is found in the will of Ezekiel Hamlin in which he mentions "my brother Thomas Drake of Weymouth". (Suffolk County Probate 8:4.) But documentary evidence of the reputed sister Joane has not been found.

The Weymouth Town records are cited as authority by Louis Stoughton Drake, and by William L. Chaffin, author of A Biographical History of Robert Randall (1909), for the supposed marriage of Joane Drake to Thomas² Randall (Robert¹). Weymouth Vital Records (1910), a compilation of the Town records, does not show such a marriage; neither is there a record of the birth of a son, Thomas² Randall, on Mar. 12, 1659, in this volume.

Without documentary evidence to support the connection, it is extremely doubtful, then, that a Joane Drake was in Weymouth, Mass., between 1654 and 1671, or that Thomas² Randall ever had a wife named Joane, who can be proved to be a sister to Thomas Drake.

Untill more conclusive evidence is found, Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth and his sister Elizabeth (Drake) Hamlin of Boston, should not be accepted as children of William and Margaret (Westofer) Drake of Yardbury, co. Devon, England, and the problem of their parentage must be considered unsolved.

Incidentally, Mr. Drake was also in error when he stated that Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth died in 1691 (p.2) On July 20, 1692, Thomas Drake Sen. was chosen for grand jury duty by the freeholders of Weymouth (Suffolk County Court files, no. 4026). The appraisal of his estate was made on Aug. 30, 1692 (Suffolk County Probate, 13:54,55). Hence he died between July 20 and August 30 of 1692.

~~But~~ It is up to the reader to decide if the above is sufficient evidence for us to disregard the many years that Louis Stoughton Drake has spent in research on the Drake family both in America and England basing his works both on vital records and tradition. In any case there can be no doubt that our Drakes of Ellitsville Descended from Thomas¹ Drake of Weymouth Mass., as most of the connections can be proved by vital records.

L. S. Drake suggest that Thomas came with a relative John Drake of Taunton Mass., abt. 1653-4, and his sisters Joane and Elizabeth (see note above) , and settled at Weymouth, Mass.. His name first appears on the records of Weymouth in a list of property owners in 1663, in which he is described as owning "Lot 70, containing 6 acres in the first division, beginning on the boundry line and 18 acres, Lot 33 in the second division. Prior to that, the latest list of landowners was that of Nov. 26, 1651 in which his name does not appear, hence he settled in Weymouth after 1651 and before 1663.

The frequency with which his name appears on the land deeds and the war records shown that Thomas¹ Drake took an active part in the town. His name appears as witness on deeds Dec. 15, 1664, and three years later he was a member of the Suffolk Traders. He took an active part in the King Philips war, until June 24, 1676 was a member of the garrison at Punkapouge where he saw at least two months service. Plymouth Colony Deeds (Vol. 9, p. 320) record large purchases of land by him on July 29, 1682, near Taunton River in Freetown, half of which land he sold June 12, 1688 to Ralph Paine of Rhode Island (M.E. Reg. Vol XXII, p. 211). He died in Weymouth 1692 and his estate was settled in 1692, was valued at L237-2s-2d. A considerable sum at that time.

Thomas¹ Drake married first Jane Holbrook of Weymouth, dau. Thomas and Jane Holbrook. After her death he married second Mrs. Mellicent Carver 9 Mar. 1681, dau. William Ford.

D6. JOHN⁶ DRAKE (John⁵⁻⁴, Joseph³, John², Thomas¹), of Buckfield Me., and Elliottsville, Me., was born probably at Bridgewater, Mass., 8 Oct. 1783, died at Abbott Maine, 19 March 1872, married first 1 Jan. 1809, MARTHA PACKARD (~~PACHHURST~~) (PACHURST), born about 1787, died at Buckfield Maine, 12 April 1826, daughter of Daniel Packard and Betsey. A very interesting letter has been kept by Laura Jane Ashcraft, it was written to Martha Wheeler by her sister Geraldine V.D. Sawyer, when Martha was in Far West Ill.

" Elliottsville, May 27, 1848.

"Dear Sister Martha and Brother Jacob Wheeler,- again I greet you with a friendly line from home-- Gladly would I extend the warm hand of love and friendship but this at present must be denied me which I heartily regret. Yet the opportunities that are still left us, may we no longer neglect but hold sweet intercourse, through the medium of pen and paper--- Dear Sister a long period of time has already elapsed since I have had ~~the~~ an opportunity of seeing and conversing with you and still more I have scarcely heard a syllable from you, this should not be so-- let us be more social by the way of correspondence, though the sweets of personal intercourse be denied us, Sister you are far away from the sweet home of your childhood and doubtless your memories wenders back to this our house in the forest and often in the silent watches your thoughts revert back to us thou hast left so far behind-- and then perhaps regret that you hast so unwisely left our own loved soil to seek a home in the far west-- but morning returns and with it its accustomed joys and cares and your mind becomes wholly absorbed in your domestic duties and you think not of home or its endearments-- But you are happy and contented with your new home I understand you would not think of returning I am glad if you like well being you are there-- but I should have liked much better not to have had you gone there at all I think we could all get along as well in Maine but so it is I find we are all to be scattered ~~as~~ abroad, like sheep without a shepherd but may the Great Shepherd of our souls at last call us from all our wondering-- and unite us in the fould of Christ where we shall no more go astray-- this alone must sustain us, as we journey down the declivity

of life-- but away sad thoughts we will not reflect upon these long and dreary days of absence we will hope for better days then we may meet with joy enjoying the society of friends with the blessings of heaven. Dear Sister Our Brother Harrison is with you I feel to rejoice with you, that you have the pleasure of his society but most sorely we lament his absence from among us it has been some time since we have heard from him therefore I do not know whether he resides yet ~~or~~ in your vicinity or not I hope we shall hear from you soon say sister do you think I could find employment there sufficient to supply myself and child, if you think I could get business (I'm not sure about the word) enough I am off like a jug handle I am not happy--nor do I ever expect to be but a change might for a time dispel the gloom from my mind which I am well aware has already laid its withering grasp upon my constitution I do not wish to have You think that I am laboring under any Body infirmity it is not so yet in my opinion no physical disease can compare with the debility of the mental ----- Pooh nonsense what am I talking about-- we have got a fine house a building and I hardly think I should be willing to leave it until I get some of the ware and tare out of it-- but look out occasionally for we may all move out west one of these days unless you should conclude to return to old Maine-- but by the way how do you prosper and are you as happy and as contented there as you were here

Our friends in this vicinity are as well as usual with a few exceptions the last we heard from Alexander he wrote us his health was very poor indeed Cousin Nancy Drake is very sick with the dropsy the Doctor has given her over we watched with her last night-- so you will not think strange if I make some crooked marks Father is with us he is at work on our house-- say to Br Harrison we should be glad to hear from him if he has no objections write us soon tell us how you prosper how many babies you have got-- how many pigs you are a going to raise and whether corn is pritty plenty for I suppose corn & pigs are the chief articles of produce in your diggins I guess I have written nonsense enough and shall be obliged to quit for my little one has just fell and hurt her and Mother just always see to the babies do good by for this time Give our love to Brother Harrison and family I should be glad to just drop in and see how you look this morning yet I shall be necessitated to wait a little longer I suppose, I shall ~~be~~ soon expect a long letter from you--
